

ACADEMIC MEDICAL ONCOLOGIST
Queen's University Kingston, Ontario

Queen's Department of Oncology is seeking a full time Academic Medical Oncologist.

Qualified candidates must be eligible for licensure with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. Preference will be given to applicants who are certified or eligible for certification in Medical Oncology by the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada.

The Division of Medical Oncology at Queen's University located at the Kingston Health Sciences Centre, currently consists of 18 full-time and part-time academic Medical Oncologists practicing at the Cancer Centre of Southeastern Ontario. The Cancer Centre sees over 4,500 new patients each year, is the sole provider of advanced cancer treatment for the 600,000 residents of south-eastern Ontario and is part of the Regional Cancer Program of south-eastern Ontario.

Candidates must demonstrate evidence of an ability to work in an interdisciplinary, collaborative environment. The successful candidate will also be expected to take a full role in the clinical activities of the Division of Medical Oncology. A demonstrated interest in research or educational scholarship would be an asset. Preference will be given to candidates with interest and expertise in one or more of the following specialties: Head and Neck, Sarcoma, Breast or Melanoma.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Queen's is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, racialized/visible minorities, Indigenous/Aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities, and LGBTQ+ persons. Candidates require fluent written and oral communication skills in English.

To comply with Federal laws, the University is obliged to gather statistical information about how many applicants for each job vacancy are Canadian citizens/permanent residents of Canada. Applicants need not identify their country of origin; however, all applications must include one of the following statements: I am a Canadian citizen/permanent resident of Canada; OR, I am not a Canadian citizen/permanent resident of Canada. Applications that do not include this information will be deemed incomplete.

The review of applications will commence April 1, 2018 and will continue until the position is filled. Applicants should forward a letter of intent to apply, a copy of their curriculum vitae and the names and addresses of three referees to:
